

Motorcycle Handlebar Height Limits by State

- Michigan – 15' above seat
- Wisconsin – 30" above seat
- North Dakota – Below shoulders of seated operator **
- South Dakota – NO RESTRICTIONS **
- Iowa – NO RESTRICTIONS
- Nebraska – 15" above fastening point **
- Kansas – NO RESTRICTIONS
- Missouri – 15" above seat
- Illinois – Handlebars below head height
- Indiana – No higher than shoulders of the driver when seated in the drivers seat
- Ohio – No higher than shoulder height **
- Pennsylvania – NO RESTRICTIONS **
- Kentucky – NO RESTRICTIONS **
- Tennessee – NO RESTRICTIONS **
- North Carolina – NO RESTRICTIONS **
- Virginia – NO RESTRICTIONS
- West Virginia – Max 15" above seat **
- Pennsylvania – NO RESTRICTIONS
- New York – Cannot be more than height of operators shoulders
- New Jersey – Handle grips below shoulders
- Maryland – Max 20" above seat **
- Colorado – NO RESTRICTIONS **
- Texas – No handlebar regulation **
- Arkansas – NO RESTRICTIONS **
- Mississippi – NO RESTRICTIONS **
- Louisiana – Not above shoulder height
- Oklahoma – Not above shoulder height
- Alabama – 15" above seat
- Georgia – 15" above seat
- Florida – No higher than operators shoulders when seated
- D.C. – 15" above seat **
- Deleware – NO RESTRICTIONS
- Connecticut – Prohibited above shoulders
- Rhode Island – Operators shoulders
- Massachusetts – Operators shoulders **
- New Hampshire – NO RESTRICTIONS
- Vermont – 15" above seat
- Maine – Shoulder height **
- Montana – NO RESTRICTIONS **
- Wyoming – Shoulder height **
- Colorado – NO RESTRICTIONS **
- New Mexico – NO RESTRICTIONS
- Arizona – Operators shoulders when seated on motorcycle
- Utah – Shoulder height **
- Idaho – NO RESTRICTIONS
- Washington – Max 30" above seat **
- Oregon – NO RESTRICTIONS
- Nevada - Shoulder height
- California – 6" above shoulders when seated
- Alaska – 15" above seat
- Hawaii – 15" above seat.